

I strongly believe that the FCC should not implement any proposals that would lessen Indiana's Privacy Law protection. I listen to sales people and phones all day. I don't like coming home and having my phone ring every five minutes, all evening long. Anything less than what we have now would be a travesty!